Follow the link , to receive your rail ticket

For your journey, you have chosen the convenient and environmentally friendly option of travelling to and from the airport via train, which we offer in cooperation with Deutsche Bahn.

To use this service, please follow the steps below to easily convert your personalised voucher codes into a rail ticket:

1. Follow the link above to redeem your voucher codes and select your chosen rail connection
2. Enter voucher code (2 codes are available for outward and return journey)
3. Change departure station (for return trip arrival station) if necessary
4. Select suitable connection from the suggestions
5. Print out your digital ticket and/or request that it be sent to you via e-mail

Detailed information can be found on the home page of the above link under ticket area of application.

You can only travel by train with a valid rail ticket; the voucher code alone does not authorise you to travel by rail.

Please note that any voucher discounts for your special services will be listed on the separate overall confirmation together with the flight details but will not be factored in here.

You have registered a special service - here are some important information in advance:

1. If you booked your flight through a tour operator, please note that your special service reservation is not part of your tour operator booking. Please inform us about any changes in your tour operator booking, so that we can adjust your special service reservation.
2. The reservation confirmation issued for special services is only valid for the above-mentioned flight(s). If you change or cancel your booking, you must reserve the special service again.
3. The airline company reserves the right to exchange an advance seat reservation with one of a similar type within the booked class of service.
4. In case of non-compliance with the mentioned conditions of conveyance or in case you intentionally have given wrong information concerning the weight or dimensions, our Check-in staff and the flight crew is entitled to refuse to carry the pet / excess baggage / bulky baggage / sports equipment or child restraint system on-board even if it has been confirmed. The airline company cannot be held responsible for any damage incurred directly or indirectly as a result.
5. In accordance with international agreements, airlines have limited liability for luggage that is handed in. Therefore we would advise you in your own interest to take out separate insurance to avoid having insufficient coverage should a claim be made.
6. All special services are subject to the General Terms of Business and Carriage (GTBC). These and other Information can be found on the Internet at www.condor.com.
